Reunion

Then. Now. Always. CORNELL

Reconnect with old friends - Make new friends - Join the fun at our 40th Reunion!!!

Our 40th Reunion is just two months away and we trust you are making plans to come back to Ithaca for a friends and events filled weekend.

“I remember during my first reunion, walking across the Arts Quad, looking about at the buildings—ten years out of school, I thought, ‘This place isn’t so scary after all.’ It was a funny reaction, but one of many surprises in store. I love that crazy time machine feeling from walking into Goldwyn-Smith Hall or the Ivy Room. There is something about walking into a building, when the last time you set foot in the place was 40 years ago. You get a little twinge of wonder and euphoria from having the sights and smells of two widely different times all at once.” —Jim Chapman ’70

There will be a full schedule of class- and university-sponsored events to keep you as busy as you want to be. The much anticipated Olin Lecture at 3 p.m. on Friday features Tom Peters ’65, ME ’66, co-author of In Search of Excellence. President David Skorton will give the State of the University Address on Saturday morning. Opportunities abound for you to attend or participate in athletic events and musical performances throughout the weekend. And everyone looks forward to the tent parties on the Arts Quad on Friday and Saturday evenings!

We are joining the University in its quest for sustainability and will have meals, activities, and souvenirs that are environmentally sound and ecologically conscious. One highlight will be Friday when we enjoy a “100-Mile Sustainability Dinner” with foods and beverages from the Ithaca area, proving that sustainable can be delicious!

Our class headquarters will be the William Keeton House, the next-to-last addition of new housing facilities on West Campus, replacing the old U-Halls at the bottom of Libe Slope. Many of you will remember wonderful Professor Keeton from Bio 101. Our class gets to experience the campus from one end to the other with meals at the Plantations, the Memorial Room, and on West Campus.

Most of all, there will be plenty of time to chat and reminisce with old and new friends. Between all the activities, you will have all of Cornell to rediscover and fall in love with all over again!

We look forward to welcoming you back to the Hill June 10-13.

HOUSING FAQs

What's included in the room fee?

The University provides bath towels, bed linens, hangers, broadband Internet, and there is a daily towel exchange. You'll want to bring your own radio, alarm clock, hair dryer, iron, and mobile phone, as the only landline phones are in the hallways. Keeton House is air conditioned in the community rooms and dining room but not in the dorm rooms. Dorm rooms have a ceiling fan and a screened window that can be opened. If you are driving to Ithaca, you may want to consider bringing a portable fan.

When is check in/check out?

Thursday at noon/Sunday by noon.

Can I smoke in the dorms or bring my pet?

No and no (unless your pet is a service animal).

Can I get a room near my friends?

We can try! Room requests can be made by contacting your registration chair.

I have special needs—is it practical for me to stay in the dorms?

Yes! On the paper and online registration forms, there is a space to communicate your needs.

Does our class have a block of rooms at a hotel?

Yes. Call the Holiday Inn (607-272-1000) or the Hilton Garden Inn (607-277-8900) well before May 4 (when the block will be released) and tell them you're with the Cornell Class of '70. If you end up on the hotel waiting list, you should register for a dorm room in the interim and cancel by May 28 to get a refund.

3. Gifts to our 40th Reunion Campaign

Our goal is to have every classmate make a gift to Cornell as part of our reunion campaign. Each gift to Cornell, regardless of the amount or designation, counts in our class totals, and helps to support today's Cornellians. You can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give, or by calling the Cornell Annual Fund at 1-800-279-3099. We will be announcing our results at Reunion Weekend, so please send in your gift today so that we can count your gift in our totals.
